EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.)

These Regulations prescribe certain information that remote gambling licensees must provide to account-holders, the intervals at which those licensees must send to account-holders alerts detailing winnings and losses and the time spent gambling through their accounts, and the periods in respect of which those licensees must provide account-holders with immediate access to their gambling history.

These Regulations may be cited as the Gambling Regulation Act 2024 (Provision of Information to Account-Holders) Regulations 2026.
