

RULES

IV AWARDS FOR RESPONSIBLE GAMING

1. Call

The Fourth Responsible Gaming Awards are announced to recognize individuals or legal entities who have stood out for their work in favor of the promotion of Responsible Gaming and who deserve public recognition.

2. Organization

The Responsible Gaming Awards will be organized by the InfoPlay Digital Newspaper.

3. Awards

The prizes will consist of a sculpture and an accrediting diploma.

4. Categories

The awards will have the following categories:

- Responsible Gaming Personality Award
- Award to the Sectorial Association most committed to Responsible Gaming
- Award for the Company Committed to Responsible Gaming
- Award for the Institution Most Committed to the sector and the defense of National Responsible Gaming
- Award for the Institution Most Committed to the sector and the defense of International Responsible Gaming
- Award for the most outstanding Initiative on Responsible Gaming at the National or International level
- Award for action in CSR

5. Calendar

The jury will be constituted next November 2021; its composition will be public, and its deliberations will be secret.

6. Award ceremony

The prizes will be presented during an event in January 2022.

7. Nominations

Institutions, entities, companies, and professionals, from the sector or related, may be eligible for the awards.

The candidatures may be submitted by any natural or legal person, or any entity, linked or not, to the gaming sector; and by InfoPlay readers.

The deadline for submission will end on January 17th at 11:59 p.m., by e-mail to jmecinas@infoplay.info or redaccion@infoplay.info, along with a brief report that describes the motivation for the candidacy.

The jury will be able to present motu proprio nomination proposals.

8. Decision

The jury's decision will be majority and unappealable, it will be motivated and inspired by criteria of truthfulness, transparency, equal opportunities and sectorial development, an act will be made with the decision.

The participation of the jury implies the acceptance of these bases and any circumstance not contemplated will be resolved by the organization, which reserves the right to resolve in an unappealable way any situation not foreseen in the bases.

Each member of the jury will have one vote for each of the different award categories.

The president of the jury will have, where appropriate, a casting vote.

The various categories may be declared void or have winners ex aequo according to the criteria of the jury.

9. Communication

The organization will communicate the awards, which must be accepted, prior to the celebration of the awards ceremony. The members of the jury undertake not to make public the name of the winners until they have been informed and the organization so decides.